BOOSTING FOR SHRINE MEET

Much Interest in Coming to Arizona of Imperial Potentate Smith of Mystic Shrine for Grand Canyon Ceremonial Session

Much interest is being manifested in the entire state over the coming of Imperial Potentate Frederick R. Smith of the Mystic Shrine to the Grand Canyon in October. The occasion of the visit of the Potentate of all North America is a desire to acquaint himself with Shrine conditions in the west and incidentally look over the meeting place of the next Imperial Council, The Imperial Council will hold its annual session in Seattle, in 1915. Accompanying Imperial Potentate Smith on his swing around the west is a big party of Shriners and officers of the Imperial Divan, a partial list of which was published in The Republican when the first announcement of the trip was made known.

The party will arrive at the Grand Canyon from San Diego on the morning of October 5, and will be escorted from Williams to the Rim by a special train composed of delegations of Shriners from the state, the Pacific Coast, Albuquerque, and El Paso, Tex. On arrival at the canyon, a big program, now being arranged by the local order, will be offered for the entertainment of the party and the guests of the day.

The occasion will mark the first visit of an Imperial Potentate to officiate at a ceremonial session in Arizona, and many will take advantage of this chance to become members of the order.

Already a big class in the consistory is assured, and word is awaited from Tucson telling when the first class will be given the work of the remaining degrees above the Blue Lodge. The Knight Templars of the state expect to add many members to their ranks, who want to join in time to have the honor of being made members of the play degree of Masonry by the Imperial Potentate of North America.

Eminent Commander Sir George Christy of Phoenix lodge of Knights Templar was seen yesterday, and said that he has been asked regarding the work in time for the Grand Canyon ceremonial, and at the coming meeting, Monday night, August 3, the matter of acting on petitions to the order will be taken up. Commander Christy said that he would assure an attendance sufficient to pass on petitions. Many members of the Blue Lodge, both in Phoenix and in points in the state, are looking forward to the Grand Canyon ceremonial session. The program for the two days which El Zaribah Temple will spend at the Rim is to be completed within the next few weeks, and it is expected that the ceremonial will mark an epoch, not only in the local annals of the order, but will set a mark for the nation in Shrine endeavor.

MATRIMONIAL—A marriage license was issued yesterday to Juan Perez and Mrs. Sarah Looney, both of Maricopa.

PHILLIPS HOUSE OPENS—The Phillips House, which has been closed for a portion of the summer, will open its dining-room for breakfast on Saturday morning, now that Captain and Mrs. Shearer have returned from their trip to the Pacific coast.

"NERVY NAT" PLEADS GUILTY—Charles Waugh, the man who made himself thoroughly at home in the deserted Creighton School house the other week, was brought up before the superior court yesterday and pled guilty. Sentence will be passed at 5 o'clock this evening.

LAURA LAWLER UP FOR TRIAL—The case in which Laura Lawler, charged with inflicting bodily harm on the person of Mrs. Martha Woods in a Park street rooming house, some six weeks ago was before the superior court yesterday. Defendant pled guilty, and sentence will be passed this evening at 5 o'clock.

REDUCTION IN RATES—A reduction of almost fifty per cent in the rates on fruit and vegetables from the Los Angeles district to Phoenix has been announced by Wells Fargo and company following the request of the corporation commission. The rate on fruit and vegetables has been reduced from $2.37 per cwt. to $1.25, and the rate on carload lots has also been materially reduced. The minimum for fruit shipments in carload lots is 15,000 lbs. and for vegetables 20,000 lbs.

MORE PETITIONS FILED—Another aspirant for membership in the board of supervisors is M. B. Brooks of the Fowler district who filed his nomination petition and papers with the clerk of the board of supervisors yesterday. Mr. Brooks will run as a democrat. The office of constable of the Tempe precinct is to be contested. R. C. Estrada of the Tempe precinct is to be contested. R. C. Estrada, the present incumbent, will stand for re-election; whilst Chris Sigala has also filed his nomination petition to stand for the same office also on the democratic ticket.

REGISTRATION DAY FOR WOMEN

Next Saturday, August 1, will be registration day for women. Women may register any day but an arrangement has been made by several women for making Saturday a special registration day when the women of this county are urged to go to the court house and register. They will be received there by a committee of women who will guide them through the intricacies of registration.

LIGHTS WERE OUT BUT WALTZERS DANCED ON

Every cloud has a silver lining, according to the old saying, and a lampless dancing pavilion has its bright side, too, as was proved by the enforced darkness last evening.

When the city lighting system went so miserably out of business, Riverside was plunged into gloom and the big Thursday night crowd had to give up the pictures for awhile, but this was more than made up for by Ben Massie's Ragtime Kids in the dancing pavilion. A little matter like having no lights to play by meant nothing to them, and away they started in the darkness. For more than an hour they supplied the finest kind of dance music for one of the biggest crowds that ever filled the big floor without a note of music to read from.

The pale moon fighting its way through the clouds gave just enough light to make the place attractive, and it is safe to say that no dancing at the big park was ever more enjoyed than that to the dark music of Ben Massie's orchestra.

And, by the way, anyone who thinks the waltz is dead, should have seen the prize waltz contest at the park last evening. The lovers of the good old dance turned out in force, and when the time for the contest came every nook and cranny that gave a vantage point was crowded. The judges finally succeeded in weeding out the contestants, and awarded the first prize to D. D. Bostain and Mrs. Garishe and the second prize to Miss Ford and Joe DeSouza, Frank's little brother. The large number of contestants and the great crowd that watched the contest proves that "Billy" King is a good guesser and the waltz is a long way from death or disintegration.

FINANCE AND MARKETS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCH]

NEW YORK, July 30.—Developments in the European financial situation caused great activity in the stock exchange. Liquidation began at the opening and continued throughout the session with the greatest volume of business in several years. Total overtures amounted to 1,325,000 shares with maximum losses ranging from six to seventeen points in the more influential issues, while a few specialties fell even more. Selling from foreign sources aggregated one-fifth of the day's operations. The lowest prices were reached in the final hour on announcement that Germany had served an ultimatum on Russia. In addition to the news abroad there were vague rumors of home conditions. It was the intention of the clearing house committee to hold a session of routine character, but because of conditions it was deemed advisable to postpone action. Another factor of an adverse character was the continuance of gold shipments to London and Paris in the face of a further advance of "war risk" rates by insurance companies. Foreign exchanges were demoralized. The bond market was extremely weak, with losses of two to six points. Sales represented a par value of $4,475,000.

UNIQUE WAY TO KEEP CROWDS IN DARK HOUSE

Despite the threatening weather conditions, a large crowd was on hand at the Empress last night to welcome the acts in their new home. The show had just gotten under way when the house was plunged into darkness through the failure of the city lights. However, the crowd was a good natured one, and after having been assured from the stage that the condition was general and that the lights were out all over the city, settled down for the wait while they were royally entertained by the orchestra. During this period a novel feature was introduced by the management with the Dallas Comedy Four. A quartette selection was rendered from behind the "picture sheet" and the audience was loud in its applause at its conclusion. Finally the management decided to start the performance with the aid of candles for footlights, so the Dallas Comedy Four occupied the stage, and rendered the act which has made them Phoenix favorites since their engagement started Tuesday night. During this the lights were flashed on, and the contrast of the candle footlights and the electric ones caused more than one ripple through the house.

The Georgians followed with their novel automobile act, and repeated the success which they scored on their opening night. Ortiz, in his hand balancing act, closed the show last night. Here is a clever boy who knows how to get the best possible result from his act, and it is needless to say that his efforts are rewarded by applause at each performance.

The management announces that beginning Saturday night the orchestra will be augmented to the extent of a slide trombone and a cornet. This will bring the musical company up to a high standard, and will no doubt prove a decided advantage. The management is determined to give the patrons the best possible value.

What an Arizona House Thinks of My Thornless Cacti:

SOUTHWESTERN SUGAR & LAND COMPANY,
Los Angeles, Cal., Aug. 14, 1913.

I have just returned from Phoenix, where we planted 4000 Cacti, and for your information will state I saw no dead ones at all and each plant had from Three to Eight big, thrifty leaves on it, and we are very much pleased with the proposition. We will want more in the near future.

Yours very truly,
SOUTHWESTERN SUGAR & LAND COMPANY,
(Signed) R. P. DAVIE, President.

Above were set on the company's plantation near Glendale, Ariz. Later, Mr. Davie stated he had about 32,000 increase from these 4000 plants for spring setting, or 8 per plant.
